Named for the fast-moving field of riders in a bicycle race, the Peloton Society is comprised of idea-motivated individuals who sustain Trailnet's mission through advocacy, discourse, networking, and philanthropy. Peloton members are deeply committed to the St. Louis region and generously support Trailnet's mission of promoting safe, healthy, livable communities by making annual unrestricted gifts of $1000 or more. Society members are recognized at a variety of mission-related and social events, on Trailnet's website, and in print.
